If the patient requires more than a week of IM phenytoin, alternative routes should be explored, such as gastric intubation.

With much of the drugs flown into remote airstrips by light aircraft and then moved on to Guatemala and Mexico to reach the North American market.